We continually invest in our staff, premises and vehicles to ensure clients and their loved ones receive the highest standards of care in both client-facing areas and behind the scenes.

Plan Ahead

Planning for the future is never easy, and it is undoubtedly harder when you are planning in advance for the parting of a loved one. However, at MTI, we believe that planning is paramount. Advanced planning is also the best way to ensure that the funeral arrangements are in-line with the deceased's wishes and expectations. We advocate and encourage families to approach us to plan in advance in order to avoid and reduce anxiety and stress at a time when tensions are already high.

Why Preplanning is important?

Preplanning with an MTI funeral plan has several exclusive benefits. Namely, peace of mind, your personal choice, a fixed monthly premium, a professional funeral director. Rather than having to provide a significant lump sum fee, you can choose a funeral plan to suit your budget, and make monthly payments while saving your family members from having to take on this financial and planning responsibility themselves.

Individual Plans

As life goes on, funeral planning starts to become important. So if you are young and single, you just graduated and now entering the job market, you are probably not thinking about a funeral plan. On the other hand, if you are the main provider for your parents and siblings, it is something you should think about.

Having a funeral plan is particularly important, as it can protect your loved ones when the unexpected happens. The funeral plan will prevent your family from having to spend on funeral expenses themselves when you are no longer around.

Family Plans

Consider this. As the sole provider, your salary allows you to pay for groceries, utilities, clothing, school fees – and there is no limit to the list. Not only will your family have to cope with the loss of a loved one, but they will also have to pay for the funeral. Nowadays, a simple ceremony can cost more than Rs 20,000 and if they have no spare cash, they will face the added stress of paying for the funeral expenses. Would they be able to cope with this situation?

You also need to ask yourself how, as the only earner in the family, could you afford to arrange a funeral if you lost a loved one. Would you have to borrow money or ask other family members to contribute?

Our family plan allows you to insure your loved ones at an affordable rate. The family plan covers the husband, spouse and up to 5 children under the age of 21. Any other family member can be added as an extended member.
